NEW WEED SEWING MACHINE
THE LAST AND BEST.
THE New Weed Sewing Machine Company have now at last completed their Three Standard Styles of Weed Sewing Machines.
First—Their New "Family Favorite." Second—Their New, Light and Noiseless Manufacturers' Sewing Machine. Thirdly—Their immense heavy "Manufacturers' Favorite." The three together combining the advantages of all others up to the present time, being the BEST made and doing the best work—has received throughout Europe, the States, and upon this Coast, the First and Highest Premium
at each and every public Fair since 1867 (the year it was completed), where any premium at all has been given or where its strong points have been really exhibited.
There is a difference!—All the premiums that the WEED Sewing Machine Company claim, from the First and Highest Premium at the Great World's Fair at Paris, 1867 up to the present time, (see small circulars) are each and every one GENUINE Awards, or we will forfeit $500 for each and every false claim! Other Sewing Machines have had their Premiums but how many of them in the last two years?
There is a difference! says the "True Chronicle:" "This magnificent Sewing Machine comes forward in good time, and strikes exactly the right mark." Also the editor of the "Independent" says, "Such a Sewing Machine as the WEED—the New F. F.—we have never seen." Thus the New WEED Sewing Machine is the SIMPLEST AND STRONGEST,
the Last, and as we believe in modern improvement we may add the BEST Sewing Machine made as yet. It is the best Family Sewing Machine; it is the best Boot, Tailor's, Saddler's Sewing Machine; it is the most successful Sewing Machine! For already its name is a household word in both Europe and America, and is rapidly taking the place of all others. Its immense central Manufactory is in Hartford, Connecticut.
☞ Agents in all the Principal Cities in the World.

CLEAR THE WAY.

Men of thought, be up and stirring
Night and day.
Sow the seed—withdraw the curtain—
Clear the way!
Men of action, aid and cheer them.
As ye may?
There's a fount about to stream,
There's a light about to beam;
There's a warmth about to glow,
There's a flower about to blow,
There's a midnight darkness changing
Into gray;
Men of thought and men of action,
Clear the way!

Once the welcome light has broken,
Who shall say
What the unimagined glories
Of the day?
What the evil that shall perish
In its ray?
Aid the dawning, tongue and pen
Aid it, hopes of honest men;
Aid it, paper, aid it, type;
Aid it, for the hour is ripe;
And our earnest must not slacken
Into play.
Men of thought, men of action,
Clear the way!

Lo! a cloud's about to vanish
From the day;
And a brazen wrong about to crumble
Into clay.
Lo! the Right's about to conquer;
Clear the way!
With the Right shall many more
Enter smiling at the door;
With the giant Wrong shall fall
Many others, great and small,
That for ages long have held us
For their prey.
Men of thought and men action,
Clear the way!

THE WILKINS FAMILY.

Authorities differ in regard to the origin of man. Some think he is but a higher grade of the "What is it?" and others that he is only a fully developed clam. I incline to the latter opinion in the case of certain men who fritter away their lives in folly and dissipation. But the whole subject is a difficult one, and peculiarly to the unphysical mind. This is illustrated in the case of young Wilkins, who sought the author of his being with the following inquiry:

"Pop, weren't all men made by Heaven?"

"Yes, my child," benignly replied the paternal Wilkins; "but why do you ask?"

"Oh, nothing; only I see in the papers long accounts of 'self-made men,' and I thought maybe some of those fellows had been a gittin' of their own selves up."

This is the brother of that other Wilkins, baptized Holofernes Montgomery, who came home and complained that he didn't like the arithmetic they had at school, because he couldn't guess the conundrums in it.

"Conundrums!" exclaimed his paternal guardian; "Why Holofernes Montgomery Wilkins, what do you mean?"

"Why, do you know that old arithmetic of ours is full of conundrums and them things, and when Mr. Swisetail asked me: "If 120 bushels of corn will serve fifty-six days, how many days will ninety-four bushels serve six horses?" I said 'I give it up,' and he got mad about it, and said I was as stupid as an owl. Then he wanted o know 'why forty rods make one rood?' I couldn't guess it; I can't guess his darned old jokes, you know, and then he licked me"

"He was only trying to demonstrate, my child, that while forty rods make one rood, one rod sometimes makes one polite. Louisa, remove this child to bed."

This was the same boy who afterward got his teach r foul on the question: "If it takes four nails to make a quarter, how many carpet tacks will it take to get up a ten dollar bill?"

Wilkins has a taste for these things. It was during his connection with the Utterly Hopeless Mutual Insurance Company, that he went over to Boston for a few days, and upon his return was asked by Smith, you know him, old Smyth's son—coil-oil man—was asked by Smyth, "Say, Wilkins, where have you been for a week back?" "I have'nt been anywhere for it. I have'nt got a weak back," and he shot round the corner.

But his great point is in educating the mind of his boys; and one day when he had a quarrel with his aunt, and Bucephalus Alexander, his oldest child, wanted to know what was the matter, he said it was simply a little grammatical error. The relative didn't agree with his antecedent.

He was strong on grammar; and when Mary Jane asked him what syntax was, he said the tax on whisky, for Wilkins will have his tod whether or no, and he thinks it ain't right to put high duties on it.

Wilkins would sacrifice anything to a joke. When his father died, a venerable friend called to console him upon the loss of his paternal protector. Wilkins sighed and said: "Yes, the old man was good at that, but now I'm the head of the family, and I suppose I'll have to pa-rental in his place." His friend dropped a sympathetic tear, and drove to the funeral in a hack. The elder Wilkins died of consumption and his son remarked, as he saw his remains placed in an undertaker's carriage, that it was singular that the old man should first be carried off by a hackin' cough, and afterwards by a coffin hack. The undertaker didn't perceive that this was a joke until he got to the cemetery, and it made him so mad that he kicked a dog that lay in his way, and the dog bit a chop out of his leg.

"Is it a bull dog?" said Mrs. Wilkins.

"No, my love," replied her husband, "it's a cemeterrier."

But Wilkins had a brother-in-law named Gouge, who ran for judge up in Schuylkill county, and the very first case he tried was that of a man who owned a coal mine, but had been a Major in the army. His tailor sued him for a uniform but Gouge decided against the tailor, that he couldn't have made those clothes for him, because a miner couldn't be a major.

Gouge was an infidel. He was so skeptical that his own mother wouldn't believe him, and he gave up the law and turned spiritualist. He was the medium who received a message from the spirit of Daniel Webster, stating that there were a great many errors in his dictionary which he would like to have corrected.

It was before Judge Gouge that Ferguson, the soap-fat man, was sued by a woman for a breach of politeness—she thought that was what it was; and Gouge charged the jury to give her a verdict of thirty thousand dollars, which they did, while Ferguson was led out of court headed by a brass band playing "The Girl I Left Behind Me." Ferguson said he was like Leander—it was swimmin that reduced him to such a stratis. To which she said that if he hadn't mortgaged herself to him, he had at least lien'd 'er.

Judge Gouge sent them both to prison for contempt of court, for joking in his presence.

Gouge was the bosom friend of a man named Mahony, who lived out in the jungles of Germantown, and Mahony was in the navy, and attached to a mortar boat on the Mississippi. Mahony used to tell how very large a shell was that they used. It was several yards in diameter, and had to be brought in sections. The first time they fired her off, the boat was shot four miles away from the ball, which was so heavy that it never budged an inch, except to drop plump into the water.

Speaking of the army and navy, and going abroad, reminds me to state that St. George, the patron saint of England, has been proved to have been nothing but an army contractor, who supplied the forces with bad pork, and had to fly the country—his fight with the Dragon is all a humbug. Our army contractors were more successful. They not only furnished bad material, but they did not leave the country, and they succeeded in diggin' a large amount of cash out of the popular pocket.

I often go around to see Wilkins when his wife is out of town. He can smoke then, and he don't care how late he sits up. Wilkins is fond of music, and has a hand organ in his back parlor.

"Wilkins, my boy," said I, play us a tune, won't you?"

"Oh, I can't. Excuse me, I am out of practice."

"Do you play by note or by ear?" I enquired.

"By note entirely," said he, "and I have'nt a note with me, except some bank notes, and I don't play anything but seven up with them."

Just then John Mahony came in, and related how when he was out on the Mississippi, the boats were so ex-t-r-emely slight that the officers wouldn't let the men shift a quid of tobacco from one side of their mouths to the other for fear of upsetting them. When they ran out of quids they had to reverse the engines every time they wanted to-back 'er. Mahony is dead now. He mistook a lobster for a soft-shell crab, and it stuck in his throat and killed him. The doctors said it was strangulation, but it is more likely he died of grief because he couldn't lie again.—Martine's Recitations.

A COMICAL description is given by a correspondent, of the standing army of San Domingo. The part of it which he saw consisted of two negroes and one mulatto (the last with red face, red hair and red whiskers), and all barefooted and dressed in the most incongruous and fantastic manner. One wore on his head a white slouched hat, another wore a black silk hat, and the third accomplished the anomalous anachronism of wearing nothing. They were armed respectively with a musket, a sword and a machete or long knife—the national weapon of tropical and Central America.

MAN'S BLESSINGS.—1. Blessed is he who doth not make a cent, for he will have no income tax to pay.

2. Blessed is the bald-headed man, for his wife cannot pull his hair.

3. Blessed is the homely man, for the girls shall not molest him, yea, thrice blessed is he, for when he asketh a lady to dance, she will answer him, saying: "I am engaged for the next set."

4. Blessed is he who polisheth his boots and not his morals; who maketh the out side of his head shine, but neglecteth the inside thereof, all girls shall rise up at his command and call him beautiful.

5 Blessed is the man who hath no brains, but brass in abundance, for he shall be the ladies' favorite. Selah.

6. Blessed is the man who giveth many and costly presents to young ladies, for great shall be his reward—in a horn.

7. Blessed is the man who is flat broke for no man sayeth unto him, loan me a V.

8. Blessed is the Digger Indian, for unto him no man presenteth a subscriptin paper.

THE bullion product west of the Rocky Mountains exceeds $60,000,000 a year. In 1870 it was set down at $67,000,000 and in 1869 it was about $63,000,000. With improved progresses for the reduction of ores, and the new impetus which has been given to mining, the bullion product for this region may run up to $75,000,000.

THE man who seeks fortune by crooked paths, and finds it, can only be consistently envied by adventurers who have sought it by the same bad roads, and missed it. Ill-won wealth is comparatively worthless to the winner, however loudly he may crow over it. No golden key, forged in the furnace of fraud, will open the door of the virtuous to aspiring scoundrelism.

REPUTATION.—There are two modes of establishing your reputation; To be praised by honest men, and to be abused by rogues. It is best, however, to secure the former; because it will be invariably accompanied by the latter. His calumnition is not only the greatest benefit a rogue can confer upon you, but it is also the only service he will perform for nothing."

A YOUNG woman from Boston, the wife of an army officer on the frontier, became much interested in a noble savage until he stole all her jewelry, got beastly drunk with the proceeds, and was found half buried in the mud one mornrng in front of the fort. She has since ceased to regard the red man romantically.

An Ohio man, who passed around a plate at a religious meeting for contribution for the heathen, and then pocketed the money, has been acquitted by a grand jury of the vicinage on the ground that he was the greatest heathen they knew, and was, therefore justly entitled to the money.

A man stopping his paper wrote to the editor: "I thinks folks ottent to spend their munny for payper, mi daddy didn't and everybody sed he was the intelligentest man in country and had the smartest family of boiz that ever dugged taters."

A YOUNG man wrote to a Western stage manager, recently, that he wanted to try acting. He thought he would prefer to begin as a grave-digger in Hamlet. He didn't want to be "one of those talking grave-diggers," but thought he could come on and "sort of boss the job."

SIX young men, boarders at a New York boarding house, collected several hundred bedbugs, pinned them on a sheet of paper in divisions and regiments, and labelled the paper, "Operations on the R(h)ine," and left the seat of war to be studied by the landlady.

IT IS A sad thing when Christians borrow spectacles to behold their weak brethren's weaknesses, and refuse looking-glasses, wherein they may see their weak brethren's graces.

THE heart is, as it were, the pasture in which multitudes of thoughts are fed every day; a gracious heart, diligently kept, feeds many precious thoughts of God in a day.

THE BIBLE.—Theodore Parker, who did not believe the Bible to be of God any more than any other good book is, said:

"View it in what light we may, the Bible is a very surprising phenomenon. This collection of books has taken such a hold on the world as no other. The literature of Greece, which goes up like incense from the land of temples and heroic deeds, has not half the influence of this book from a nation alike despised in ancient and modern times. It is read of a Sabbath in all the ten thousand pulpits of our land. In all the temples of Christendom is its voice lifted up week by week. The never sets on its gleaming page. It goes equally to the cottage of the plain man and the palace of the king. It is woven into the literature of the scholar, and colors the talk of the street. The bark of the merchant cannot sail sea without it; no ship of war goes to the conflict but the Bible is there. It enters men's closets, mingles in all the grief and cheerfulness of life. The affianced maiden prays God in Scripture for strength in her new duties; men are married by Scripture. The Bible attends them in sickness, when the fever of the world is on them. The aching head finds a softer pillow when the Bible lies underneath. The mariner escaping from shipwreck clutches this first of his treasures, and keeps it sacred to God. It goes with the pedlar, in his crowded pack, cheers him at even-tide, when he sits down dusty and fatigued; brightens the freshness of his morning face. It blesses us when we are born; gives names to half Christendom; rejoices with us; has sympathy for our mourning; tempers our grief to finer issues. It is the better part of our sermons. It lifts man above himself; our best of uttered prayers are in its storied speech, wherewith our fathers and our patriarchs prayed. The timid man about awaking from this dream of life, looks through the glass of Scripture and his eye grows bright; he does not fear to stand alone, to tread the way unknown and distant, to take the death-angel by the hand, and bid farewell to wife and babes and home. Men rest on this their dearest hopes. It tells them of God and of His Son—of earthly duties and of heavenly rest."

A SUFFERING LOVER.—The sufferings of poets when they fall in love must be something tremendous, if one of them who wrtes to the Home Journal is a fair sample. He begins by averring he loved her ere he saw her face—he loved her for her lovely name; her beauty and celestial grace have kindled in his heart a flame that neither time nor tide can tame. Now the man who is in such a condition of mind is, we should think, much to be envied; but that is not his opinion, for he goes on to express the agony of woe in the following verses:

"The arrow's quivering in my heart;
I strive to draw it, mad with pain;
Mine eyes grow dim, my pulses start,
Hot lava streams course every vein,
Delirium clasps my reeling brain."

Our advise to this young man is to take a strong dose of castor oil without a moment's delay.

AN American physician has discovered by a long series of experiments, that the weight of persons increases during the hot months. He found that there was a progressive loss of weight from September to March, and a gain from April to August. This view differs much from the commonly conceived idea. So far as our observations have led us, it is quite the reverse. A loss in the hot seasen and a gain as the colder season approaches. In all cases much depends upon climate, habits, dress and occupation of an individual.

HER PART OF THE BUSINESS.—A man looking for a house was asked if he had any children; he responded that had never had any. He secured the house, and brought with him a half dozen lively boys. Upon being remonstrated with for his deception, replied, "I told you I never had any children and I told you the truth. It was my wife who had them. That is her part of the business of our co-partnership."

THE plea of the defendant in a recent breach of promise case in Iowa, is that he "was in earnest about marrying the girl until he got the rheumatism."

A DRUNKARD leaning against a church railing, in answer to a question from the sexton, said he did not exactly belong to the church, but he "was leaning that way."

"MARCHING ON!"

The telegraph brings us news of a great Democratic victory in New Hampshire. According to the dispatches the Democrats have elected three out of five Congressmen, with a probability of electing the entire number. Returns from two hundred and eighteen cities and towns indicate that no choice has been made by the voters for Governor, the vote standing, Pike, Republican. 33,339, Weston, Democrat, 33,881, Cooper and scattering 1,074 Should the official returns not change the figures materially the Legislature will have to select a Governor. Th House, according to the returns, stands 124 Democrats to 122 Republicans, and 4 Labor Reform; and the Senate 5 Democrats, 4 Republicans, and 3 vacancies; while the Executive Council stands 2 and 2 with a vacancy in the First District. This is the most important victory vet gained by the Democrats, and was almost unexpected. It is the heaviest blow that Radicalism has yet received, as it comes from the center of their hot-bed; a section which had been given up as irretrievably lost to all honorable political sentiment. But the yoke of Radicalism was too galling; the infamies of the ruling family was too great, it could not be longer borne. Unequal taxes and unequal and unjust laws, have forced the masses to a just sense of the situation. The laboring men, and the mechanics, see that unless they raise their hands and strike in self-defense, they will be forced from their fields of labor to make room for the Asiatic slaves—the pampered children of the present corrupt, dishonest and infamous Administration. The issue was forced, and it has been met, and, thank God! it will be the means of soon sinking the infamous party beneath the waves of oblivion.

These "groundswells" will continue until every State in the union renounces the Radical creed. The Successor to San Domingo Present Receiver Grant, will be a Democrat and an honest honorable man.

[COMMUNICATED]

MILLERTON, March 20, 1871.

EDITOR EXPOSITOR:—I took a little jaunt over to "Pumpkin River," alias King's River, yesterday, and I must say I was agreeably surprised to see the flourishing condition of that part of our county. Our citizens in the northern part of our county must awake from their lethargy or they will be lost sight of by the King's River people, for the want of energy, industry and enterprise.

Mr. M. J. Church, who is the individual owner of the Sweem ditch, has turned the whole of the water in the canal of the Fresno Canal and Irrigation Company, which is sufficient to meet the present demand for water. Mr. Church also owns about two-thirds of the water carried by the ditch of the Centerville Canal and Irrigation Co., which he intends to turn into the Fresno Canal, which will afford all the water that will be required by the farmers of that section this season.

Mr. Church offers quite an inducement to settlers. He proposer to furnish all the water that can be used on one quarter section of land for the period of fifty years for the sum of $250, and an assessment per annum, for keeping up repairs, etc., of $16 Just think of it! All the water that can be used for fifty years at such a low figure.

I am of the opinion that we will have to move our County Seat to Centerville next year. Yours &c. LEX LOCI.

THE AMERICAN ODD FELLOW for March has in its attractive contents many valuable and interesting original contributions, among them—Blue Dick, a mystery of the Everglades; History of Cheap Postage, by the originator of this beneficial system; Among the Mormon Saints, a startling expose by a Mormon Elder; "Flush Times" in the California Mines, a truthful and interesting description of the Land of Gold in 1850-'53; Scientific and Curious Facts; Humors of the Day; Notes of Travel (illustrated); Odd Fellows' Temple, Sacramento (illustrated); Why Odd Fellowship Succeeds; Departments for the Fraternity and Home Circle; Poetry and Miscellany; News from all parts of the jurisdiction of the Order, &c, &c. LAKEPORT AVALANCHE.—No. 1 of the Lakeport Avalanche has been received at this office. It is Democratic in politics, and edited with ability by J. H. Goldsmith. The typographical appearance of the paper is good.

THE RESULT.

The Examiner of March 13th contains a telegraphic dispatch, dated Laramie, Wyoming Territory, March 11th, announcing the proceedings of the mixed jury empanelled at that place to try whatever cases of murder, arson, rape and divorce that may be submitted to them. The dispatch contains the following questionable compliment to the ladies who form a portion of that model jury:

The female portion of the jury appear now to be perfectly at home with their task. The timidity manifested at the beginning is entirely worn off. Such of the testimony as is often necessarily unrefined is listened to with as much regard for their sense of duty as manifested by those of the sterner sex. The jury represents quite a curious appearance, having among them a negro.

There is a whole volume contained in the above paragraph. We are now beginning to reap the fruits of shame and degradation as the result of the pernicious intermeddling with and dabbling in the filthy cesspool of politics by such antiquated cronies as the Dickinsons, Stantons, Logans and their despicable ilk. Here the telegraph proclaims to the world that our beautiful American ladies, who were always noted, and deservedly so, for their modesty, grace and refinement, are sitting at Laramie, in the same jury box with rough, uncouth white men, and stoically listen, without a blush suffusing their delicate cheek, without manifesting the least timidity or reserve (it having all worn off), to the coarse badinage of contending attorneys; to testimony which is often "necessarily unrefined," and some of which would undoubtedly, in many instances, send the crimson tide current to the brazen cheek of a harlot, and cause the eyes of the sterner sex to droop in very shame. But in the Territories of Washington and Wyoming, where the poisonous doctrine of female suffrage seems to have taken a firm hold, the ladies sit side by side with negroes, "perfectly at home," and witness such repulsive scenes without a blush.

In contemplating the havoc and desolation in our family relations, foreshadowed in the dispatch above quoted, and which must inevitably result should this system of mixed juries spread like a deadly pestilence over our country, the human mind stands appalled. To think that, within a few short years, perhaps, our wives, daughters and sisters may become, and of necessity must become, the associates of often low and coarse whites, and degraded negroes, unless this leprous disease of woman suffrage, which is now diffusing its baneful influence over other territories, is checked and eradicated, is certainly not a pleasing picture for the mind to dwell upon. To see their inherent modesty shocked, their innate feelings of modesty lacerated, their cheeks scarlet, and their eyes drooping at the recital of evidence which is often not only "necessarily unrefined," but frequently repulsive in the extreme to gentle natures, and often lascivious and demoralizing, awakens feelings of pity and disgust.

But then the dispatch above referred to informs us that all this beautiful reserve, this inborn modesty on the part of the ladies will wear off. This is certainly a great and priceless consolation, which we should at once lay to our hearts. However, to be assured that the experiments made in the territories named, demonstrate the fact, that the heaven-born modesty, the charming sensibilities, and the inherent virtues of our ladies, and their instinctive love for the pure, the good, and the beautiful, become blunted and gradually wear off by setting on juries and being exposed to the insulting gaze of wretched criminals, and having dished up to them choice bits of testimony and legal slang, does certainly not remove the objection to the mixed jury system, but on the contrary, it calls loudly to every father, husband, and brother, to exert themselves to their utmost, to use every means in their power with the view of defeating the insiduous scheme of fastening this foul blot, this loathsome cancer, upon the body politic of our own fair State.

Let the Territories of Washington and Wyoming, where this hydra-headed monster was hatched into life and vitality, confine its devastating influence within their own borders, and let their citizens enjoy to the fullest extent, the beauties of the mixed jury system.

ACCIDENT.—Hon A. C. Bradford met with an accident last Sunday morning when on his way to Snelling to hold a District Court. While descending the hill just this side of Princeton, some part of the harness gave way, his horse took fright and ran, and the Judge was thrown from the sulky with considerable violence, a wheel of the sulky passed over him. Dr Turner was immediately sent for, and with several citizens hastened to Princeton. It was found that though the Judge was considerably stunned and bruised, he had received no more serious injury, and he was soon able to resume his journey.—Mariposa Gazette.

DURING the session of the Forty-first Congress $78,000 were paid to contestants for seats and $28,000 for expenses created by the contest. Nearly every dollar of this expense resulted from efforts of the Republican majority to oust Democrats who had been regularly elected, and thus enabled the Republicans to secure seats against the will of the people.

MRS. KINGSLEY, in her recent lecture in Lima New York, gave utterance to this remark: "Show me a family where woman's rights prevail and I will show you a home full of dissensions and strife. While on the other hand, show me a family which is ruled by its rightful ruler, and where the laws are wisely administered, and I will show you a family where love is the guiding star, and harmony is ever found."

THE KING of Sweden is mentioned as a frequent contributor to the Stockholm press, and political economy is his favorite weakness.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A most shocking accident occurred on Big Dry Creek, on Saturday the 11th inst. An old man named Wolford, who formerly peddled fruit in this section, and was well known in this community, had went to Jensen's store, at Dry Creek station, on business, driving a team. While at the station he drank pretty freely and became intoxicated, in which condition he started on his return home, up the creek. He had not proceeded far from the station when his team ran away and threw him out of the wagon. He returned to the station, and the team was caught and returned to him. A man then got in the wagon with him, in order to see that he got safely home. They had proceeded on their journey but a short distance before Wolford began to get quarrelsome, and finally he became so disagreeable that the man got out of the wagon. He had scarcely got on the ground before the team ran away again. Mr. H. McDonald, happening to be in the vicinity at the time, and seeing the horses running away, started on horseback in pursuit of them with the intention of stopping them. He caught up with the runaway team in a short time, but was unable to stop them. At the time he caught up with the team Wolford was lying in the bottom of the wagon, apparently helpless. The boards of the wagon-bed bottom worked apart so as to let the unfortunate man's head get between them, crushing it severely. Mr. McDonald finally succeeded in rescuing him from his perilous position, in an insensible state, and applied restoratives, and finally restored him to consciousness. He was beaten and jarred in a terriole manner by the jostling of the wagon. He lingered till Wednesday last, when he died. Mr. McDonald could and would have shot the horses when he caught up with them, but, having seen the man mentioned get out of the wagon, he did not know but that Wolford had been killed by him, and so preferred running the team down.

CENTERVILLE ITEMS.—On Saturday last a number of Masons assembled in the second story of the building occupied by Mr. L. Farrar, for the purpose of organizing a lodge of Free and Accepted Masons. T. O. Ellis, Esq., called the meeting to order, and after mature deliberation an organization was effected, committees were appointed, and on Saturday next the final arrangements are to be concluded.

Mr. Wm. Caldwell has been engaged for the past two weeks in fitting up a suite of rooms in the upper story of his commodious hotel, which promises to render much comfort to travelers. Mr. C. is sparing no means to make his house first class for the incoming season. Dr. Graves has recently painted his office, which now presents a very neat appearance. The Doctor has displayed much taste in fixing up his place of business; a further improvement of a dwelling with a genial companion would give his lot an appearance of permanency.

The recent winds, we learn by a private letter from a gentleman at Centerville, who kindly furnished us the foregoing items, have effected the early crops seriously, and unless followed by rain soon grain and grasses are a failure in tha region. The same may be said of thi section, and of the entire county.

WE direct the attention of our readers at Lower Kings river to the card of Messrs. Jacob & Einstein. These gentlemen are the successors of Messrs. M. Fleishman & Co. We congratulate the people of that section on having so affluential and enterprising a firm as that of Messrs. Jacob & Einstein. We do not think any firm in the State can and do sell goods nor sell better articles than do they.

FINISHED.—The County Court finished its business on Saturday last and adjourned. Three criminal cases were disposed of, as follows: The People vs. Carter, assault with intent to commit great bodily injury; The People vs. Averan Ranjel assault to commit murder; the People vs. Hern, grand larceny. Neither of the parties were convicted. All three of these parties were indicted by the last Grand Jury.

BEAUTY.—The largest collection of beauty ever published in the United States is afforded in the Parlor Album, advertised in another column. This Album embraces the finest specimens of chromo lithographs, steel engravings and fine wood engravings ever afforded the public. The American Publishing Company of Rutland, Vt., desire an active agent in every town and village, to whom they offer liberal terms. Read the advertisement of Parlor Album.

MORE RAIN WANTED.—We are now in this section in want of more rain. We have consulted the man who runs the weather, in connection with the moon, and he says that the last "change" of that orb betokened plenty of rain, but as the weather still continues dry, we are prone to believe that some alteration must have taken place in his plans since our interview with him.

SMART MAN.—The Homestead Champion says Senator Pomeroy, of Kansas, has prospered greatly since he has been in the Senate, as in ten years he has amassed a fortune of about five million dollars by prudent management of his salary of 5,000 per annum. As Senator Pomeroy is pious, the Champion credits the Lord with this.

MORE than two-thirds of the members of the Legislature of South Carolina are colored men who have been initiated into the mysteries of law-making by the enterprising carpet-baggers who rule that State. Some of their attempts at legislation are wonderful to contemplate. There are bills pending before the Lower House which propose to regulate the profits of retail merchants, and fix the wages which planters shall pay their hands. By legislating that merchandise shall be cheap and labor dear, the supporters of these bills think they have found a sure way of rendering the colored population prosperous and ready to vote for them. Their proposed method of regulating the rate of wages is commendable for its simplicity. The plantation laborers are to meet at certain specified times during the year and decide by a vote what their employers shall pay them. If an employer refuses to accept the terms agreed upon, he is to have the option of paying a fine or going to jail. A large number of the gifted legislators can neither read nor write.

EXEMPTION from care is not happiness; n the contrary, a certain degree of care is essential to promote enjoyment.

It a life-renewing fountain, like that sought for by De Soto, should burst from the earth at every man's door, thousands would turn heir backs on the healing spring within arms-reach, to run after pretended remedies. The observant, everywhere, accept DR WALKERS VINEGAR BITTERS as the greatest medicinal blessing of modern times, but on the other hand multitudes dose themselves with poisons, while this well-spring of health is accessible to all. It purifies the animal fluids, regulates every function of the body, calms the nerves, invigorates the vital organs, and is an unfailing specific for indigestion.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS & SON, PROP'S. PROVIDENCE R. I.
1840 1870

The Pain Killer is by universal consent allowed to have won for itself a reputation nsurpased in the history of medical preparations. Its instantaneous effect in the eradication and extinction of Pain in all its various forms incident to the human family, and the unsolicted verbal testimony of the masses in its favor, have been, and are its own best advertisements.

The ingredients of the Pain Killer being purely vegetable, render it a perfectly safe and efficacious remedy taken internally, as well as for external applications, when used according to directions. The stain upon linen from its use is readily removed by washing with alcohol.

This Medicine, justly celebrated for the cure of so many of the afflictions incident to the human family, has now been before the public over thirty years, and has found its way into almost every corner of the world; and wherever it has been used, the same opinion is expressed of its medical properties.

In any attack, where prompt action upon the system is required, the Pain Killer is invaluable. Its almost instantaneous effect in relieving pain is truly wonderful; and when used according to directions, is true to the name of PAIN KILLER

It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to urinat, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflamation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the poison has, by use of powerful astringents, been dried up in the system to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

It speedily eradicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflamation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which reder it a Toilet Appendage of the most superlative and congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a preserver and refresher of the complexion. It is an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection for diseases of the urinary organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu, Sarsaparilla and Catawba Grape Pills, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. A FEW REASONS WHY

ARION PIANO!

IS SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

The ARION PIANO-FORTE has Greater Power than any other Piano-Forte manufactured

It Will Stand in Tune Longer, and in its mechanical construstion it is more perfect, and therefore more durable than any instrument constructed in the usual modern style. The arrangement of the Agraffe, the manner of stringing, the form and peculiar form and arrangement of the Iron Frame,

Supersedes all Others,

The use of a bar, (which is a part of the Iron Frame) on a line with the heavy steel stringing, gives

Great Strength

Where most needed, and in this respect all other Pianos fail.

The construction of the WREST PLANK, into which the Tuning Pins are inserted, is such that it is impossible for the pins to become loosened, or the Wrest Plank itself to split, as is too often the case in other Piano Fortes,

The Extraordinary Evenness

Throughout the entire scale, the excellent Singing Quality, the

Length and Purity of Vibration,

All go to prove what we claim, viz: that the

ARION PIANO-FORTE

Is the Best Instrument manufactured,

THE PATENT

ARION PIANOS

Are used exclusively in the American

Conservatories of Music of New York City.

The most severe test a Piano can receive is constant use in a Conservatory.

Read the Following:

It affords me much pleasure to give you, in these few lines, a very sincere testimonial for the Piano-Fortes of your manufacture. We have now used the "Patent Arion Pianos" in our Conservatories for a year, and have had a fair opportunity of testing their durability during that time. The Pianos have been played upon almost constantly from morning till night, and a Piano must indeed be a good one when it will bear such constant use without showing signs of defection. As for remaining in tune, it outrivals any Piano known to me.

Their peculiar sweetness of tone in the treble (as compared to other Pianos with the ordinary metal agraffe arrangement,) is so striking that I have had pupils remark, while taking their lessons, that although they had at home what they supposed to be one of the best makes of Pianos, still the treble was very wiry-toned compared with the ARION.

What makes them still more desirable is their uniform volume of tone, which enables an artist to perform a composition in its true character.

In total, I can conscientiously endorse all that is claimed by the ARION PIANO-FORTE COMPANY for their superb Instruments, as I consider them superior to any other make.

Congratulating you upon the great success you have obtained in the manufacture of so perfect an instrument, I remain yours.

Very truly,
HENRY SCHROEDER,
DIRECTOR.

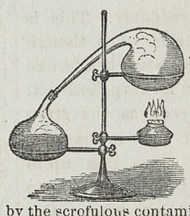
AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD!



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous.—Inveterate cases of scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tennant of the organism undermines the constitution, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops in one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the virals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposit d in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.—Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief and at length cure by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm and other visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal or Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these maladies by any medicine. But long, continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute directions for each are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflamation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do from, the rankling poisons in the blood. The SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fear, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

CLING TO THOSE WHO CLING TO YOU.

There are many friends in Summer
  Who are kind while flowers bloom,
But when Winter chills the blossoms
  They depart with the perfume.
On the broad highway of action
  Friends of worth are far and few,
So when one has proved his friendship
  Cling to him who clings to you.

Do not harshly judge your neighbor,
  Do not deem his life untrue
If he makes no great pretensions,
  Deeds are great though words are few:
Those who stand amid the tempest
  Firm as when the skies are blue
Will be friends while life endureth—
  Cling to those who cling to you!

When you see a worthy brother
  Buffeting the stormy main,
Lend a helping hand fraternal
  Till he reach the shore again.
Don't desert the old and tried friend
  When misfortune comes in view,
For he then needs friendship's comforts—
  Cling to those who cling to you.

HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

DEEP VS. SHALLOW PLOWING.—Under this caption D. L. Perkins, of Sherman Island, says:

"I stated that if one half of the land was well plowed and the same amount of labor put upon it as was usually expended upon the whole the result was beneficial. I contend that when work is well done it is twice done. No man that plows from two to three acres a day, merely turning the top of the ground, can ever succeed in farming. Let the farmer take the same team and plow six to eight inches, and he will get his return; but no, he prefers to show the world a large area of land that has been skinned, the stubble just turned under, the seed put in and nature left to perform the rest. That kind of work will not answer. The surface of the ground dries out; the roots of the grain are exposed to the rays of the sun and the wind to the great injury or total loss of crop; whereas, if the ground was well and deeply plowed, the grain properly imbedded, so that the root may take firm hold, and in the room of 14 or 18 bushels of grain, he would realize 30 or 40 bushels to the acre.

To prove this I will cite an instance that came under my own personal observation. A friend of mine had six acres of land. He asked me what I thought would be best for him to do. I said put on a three horse team, it is dry, but never mind, try it. Well, he did so, and plowed it up in large cakes and chunks of soil. I told him not to be uneasy about it; the rains came, the ground all dissolved, and after it had been cross-harrowed was as fine as a vegetable garden.

It was immediately sown in barley, and the story was told when the harvest came; for sixty bushels of grain per acre was taken from that Summer plowing. The balance of the field was all cut for hay, as the old way of plowing two or three acres a day, three inches deep was followed.

Here your readers have a good illustration of what can be done by hard work and deep plowing. The amount of ground plowed per day was one and a quarter acres. The system of light plowing was tried on this Island last year. The result was a failure. All the grain that has been put in this season has been plowed two or three times, and the ground thus put in a good condition.

TO TRAIN A HORSE TO STAND.—Take your horse on a barn floor and throw a strap over his back and fasten it to the right forefoot; lead him along and say whoa, at the same time pull down on the strap, which throws him on three feet and makes him stop suddenly. This is the best way known to teach whoa, though though you can put on the war bridle, and say whoa, and give him a sharp jerk that will stop him about as soon as the strap on his foot. Then put him in harness, with the foot-strap, and drive him up to the door. The moment he undertakes to move, take his foot and say, whoa. Get in your carriage and get out again; rattle the thills, make all the noise getting in and out you can; give him to understand by snatching his foot up every time that he moves, that he must stand till you tell him to go; and after a few times you can put the whole family into the carriage and he won't stir out of his tracks.—American Stock Journal.

THE FARMER.—The glory of the farmer is, that in the division of labor, it is his part to create. All trade rests at last on his primitive authority. He stands close to nature; he obtains from the earth the bread and meat. The food which was not he causes to be. The first farmer was the first man, and all historic nobility rests on possession and use of land.

A COLORED barber in Iowa, being subpœnaed to serve as a juror, was on the usual examination, asked "are you a voter?" and brought down the house by answering, "I'se black enough, but not old enough."

HOWEVER many friends you have, do not neglect yourself; though you have a thousand, no one of them loves you so much as you ought to love yourself.

ELOQUENT EXTRACT.

The following is an extract from the able and eloquent speech of Hon. D. W. Voorhies, of Indiana, on the bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment with Federal bayonets:

In what age, where in all past history, through all the space of time, shall we look for a proceeding like this? Here is an army of civil as well as military officials, who are to settle down upon the land, covering it all over as thick as the locusts, and as mean, perhaps, as the lice of Egypt. They are authorized to arrest without warrant and imprison without process. I may be their victim; so may you. We are all at the mercy of this more than imperial decree. It levels every right secured by centuries of Wisdom and valor into the dust. One of the empowering terms in this bill is "to supervise." It is an excellent term for the purpose in view. These officials are to supervise the conduct of the citizens at the polls. Will it be endured? How long can this last? You entered on this despotic policy for the purpose of controlling the elections in the desolated South. You did it to uphold colored suffrage. You thought it was a part of your mission. You have pursued it until you now dare to assail the great States of New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Missouri, and all the rest. Sir, I pledge the remnant of my life to this contest. We will dispute every inch of ground henceforth to the end. We will join issue with you on this attempt to subvert the liberty of the people. We will appeal to the people, whom you are afraid to trust, and whose rights and honors you menace and trample under foot.

Why should you do this thing? You disgust the people. You show that you distrust them. The people in turn will distrust you. They are the fountain of power. They are omnipotent. And you, the stream, can never rise higher than the fountain. I will not say that the present Executive has evil intentions against the liberties of his country. It does not become any one to utter such a charge without strong and clear proof, and then with care and prudence. But the grim, silent, taciturn man of action, whose opinions are never uttered in advance, and whose purposes are enveloped in constant mystery, is to be watched and dreaded, when at the head of a nation, and supported by a party reckless of constitutional restraints. I do not disparage the military capacity and military executive ability of the present Chief Magistrate of this nation. No man could have achieved the results which are recorded in his history without military talents of a high order. Concentration of purpose, force and tenacity of will, a steady, and even a vindictive courage, together with a woodman's intuitive knowledge of the face of a country for military operations, have combined to give him a place among the great commanders of the world.

In his civil knowledge, however, his capacity for civil affairs, I have no faith. And a combination of military power and civil inferiority has in all cases produced the most dangerous enemies that ever menanced the liberties of the people. Such a man relies upon the qualities of which he is concious. He esteems the faculties with which he is endowed and despises those of which nature has bereft him. He can command troops; and therefore he wants to command them. He loves power; and the control of an army at the ballot-box is a certain means of obtaining and retaining power. He is concious of no other means of obtaining popular support. He is unlearned in the laws of his country, knows nothing of the reasons which dictated its institutions in the minds of its founders, has never read its Constitution, and openly sneers at men who have the gifts of knowledge and of speech with which to explain and enforce the great doctrines of free government. Is such a character a stranger to the minds of members? Do you not recognize and dread him?

Again, behold the fallen Emperor of France—fallen now, like Lucifer, the bright sun of the morning, to hope no more. What manner of man was he twenty years ago, and how did he attain those giddy heights from which a right eous retribution, the avenging hand of God, has hurled him to the ground? Without military capacity, he was supposed to possess it, and able generals surrounded him and clung to his fortunes. History pictures him to my mind in striking semblance to the present American Chief Magistrate. His exterior was chilling and repelant. He had unscrupulous favorites who would stop at nothing in his behalf, on whom he lavished unmerited honors and wealth. He was regardless of human life and human misery. His designs were hidden. His purposes were mysterious and unknown. He climbed to power by breaking all the pledges by which he got his first foothold in the French Assembly. And, when the hour came, it was by virtue of just such preparations as are made in this bill that he found the way plain, the obstacles all removed, the ladder set up on which to ascend to the topmost round, till he reached the throne over the prostrate liberties of France and the bleeding and mangled forms of his countrymen. Shall this dark and startling page of history be all lost upon us?

A PRAYER—Josh Billings' prayer of "Good Lord Deliver Us."

From tu many friends, and from things at luse ends.

From a wife who doant luv us, and from children who doant look like us.

From snaix in the grass, from snaix in our butes, from torch lite processions, and from all new rum.

From pack peddlers, and young folks in luv, from old aunts without money, from cholera morbus.

From wealth without charitee, from pride without sense, from pedigree worn out, and from all rich relations.

From nuspaper sels, and from pils that ain't fisik, from females that faint, and from men who flatter.

From virtue without fragrance, from butter that smells, and from cats that are coarting.

From old foke's secrets, and from our own, from megiums and wimmen committees.

From pollyticians who pray, and from saints who tipple; from ri koffi, red herring, and awl grass widders.

From folks who won't laff, and from them who giggle from tite butes, easy virtue and raw mutton.

Good Lord deliver us!

A BEAUTIFUL ALLEGORY.—A traveler who spent sometime in Turkey, relates a beautiful parable which was told him by a dervis, and which seems even more beautiful than Sterne's celebrated figure of the accusing spirit and recording angel. "Every man," said the dervis, "has two angels, one on his right shoulder and one on his. When he does anything good, the angel on the right shoulder writes it down and seals it, because what has been done is done forever. When he does anything evil, the angel on his left shoulder writes it down and waits till midnight. If before that time the man bows his head and exclaims, "Gracious Allah! I have sinned—forgive me!" the angel rubs out the record; but it not, at midnight he seals it, and the angel on the right shoulder sweeps."

CLIPPINGS.

A Lowell man has built a henery large enough to accommodate 3,000 hens. A henterprising individual.

A physician being asked by a patient if he thought a little spirits now and then would hurt him much, replied, "I do not know that a little occasionly would hurt you much; but if you don't take any, it won't hurt you at all."

The libel suit of George S. Woods vs. S. H. Wade, proprietor of the Brooklyn Independent, which has been on trial in the Third District Court of Alameda county resulted in a vdrdict for plaintiff for $500 damages.

Beau Hickman for the twenty-five years he has been chief of the Washington Bummers, hasn't taken any liquor. Ask him to drink and he apparently accepts, follows you to the bar and takes—water. 'Now," says he. "I will take the charge you would have paid for my drink"

A man in Indiana threatened suicide and went down cellar for the purpose, as he informed his wife. Soon the report of a pistol was heard from the subterraneous apartment. His wife kept right on knitting, and after awhile the man came up stairs swearing that the woman haden't got any feeling.

HOWE MACHINE COMPANY'S

WORLD RENOWNED

SEWING MACHINES!

Paris Exposition Universelle, 1867.

TWO GRAND PRIZES,

GRAND CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR,

To Elias Howe, Jr., as Inventor,

And Gold Medal for

THE BEST SEWING MACHINE.

Highest Honors ever Conferred

FOR SEWING MACHINES.

THE Machine which bears his name has long been regarded as the standard of excellence, and has become celebrated the world over. The work done by these Machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest muslin or the thickest cloth, with equal facility; and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or passing over seams; it turns its own hem as it sews, sewing a seam stronger than the fabric itself. To see it hem, fell, tuck, braid, cord, quilt and gather, it seems more like a thing of life than a machine moved by the will of the operator. It is capable of doing any description of sewing that is required in a family; and also for seamstresses and dressmakers it will be found invaluable. They seldom or never give any trouble in operating, and in a word, are the

MOST SATISFACTORY SEWING MACHINES IN USE.

Notwithstanding their great superiority, they are sold at prices as low as other first-class Machines.

A Medallion likeness of Mr. Howe is imbedded in the plates of every Howe Machine, without which none are genuine. Every purchaser of a Sewing Machine, should inquire for

Elias Howe, Jr's Sewing Machines,

And if they are not sold in their vicinity, address the General Agency for Illustrated Circulars, etc., and do not purchase until you have thoroughly investigated these renowned machines.

The Great Medical Discovery!

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion of Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors Doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, New York.
